Rules Governing the Use of the Library

The rules governing the use of the library are set out here to ensure that all people who use and work at the Friendship Free Library can do so in a comfortable and safe environment. The Friendship Free Library and the library director reserve the right to determine what it considers to be disruptive or inappropriate behavior by the patrons in the library. In order to ensure that every patron has the opportunity to enjoy the benefits of the library, patrons visiting or using the library's facilities or services must comply with the Friendship Free Library Policy, Patron Behavior Policy, while on the library's premises. The Friendship Free Library is to be used for library purposes only. Any behavior that interferes with such use or that is not consistent with such use is not permitted. Any person not abiding by these rules and regulations of the library may be required to leave the library building and grounds and may forfeit their library privileges. Library employees may contact the Friendship Police, if necessary, to ensure the safety of library patrons and staff. A patron whose privileges have been denied may have the decision reviewed by the Board of Trustees. The review process shall be as follows: the Board of Trustees will meet to discuss the individuals involved at either the next board meeting or may convene in a special session to discuss the incident(s). During such a meeting, the Board of Trustees will decide whether or not to take action. A decision will then be relayed to the patron(s) within the next two business days.

The process for patron banning is as follows: if it is determined by the Board of Trustees that the patron(s) meets the requirement of a ban (see Patron Behavior Policy), the patron will be on a one month ban from the library and its premises. If any further action is needed, the ban will be extended to six months. If any further action is needed, the patron will be permanently banned from the Friendship Free Library and its premises and there will be no further appeals process. The patron will also have their card removed from the Friendship Free Library database and their card, if received at the Friendship Free Library, will be terminated. In the STLS system, the card will be flagged and a note will be put into the account notifying all other libraries in the STLS system the reason why this patron was flagged and removed.

Unattended Child and Child Safety Policy

The Friendship Free Library is dedicated to providing a welcoming, safe environment to patrons of all ages; and wholeheartedly encourages children to use its facilities and services. However, the Friendship Free Library is a public building open to all members of the public and therefore the library cannot be considered a safe place for unattended children. - Library staff will not assume responsibility for the safety and well-being of any child.
- Young children should always be accompanied by a parent, guardian, or assigned caregiver who is in the immediate vicinity and within line of sight of the child. We define "young child" as school age. Children ages 13 and above may visit the library on their own to choose materials for check out.
- Children may use the library on their own in accordance with the Patron Behavior Policy, in order to select materials, complete school assignments or attend a library program.

- Library staff may not drive children to any location, even at the request of the parent, guardian, or caregiver.

- Library staff is not responsible for the safety and well-being of children left at the library at closing time.
- Parents should be aware that children who violate the rules of the library may be asked to leave the premises whether they are accompanied by a parent, guardian, or assigned caregiver or not.

Any child left unaccompanied for an extended period of time may be approached for information concerning his/her parent, guardian, or assigned caregiver's availability and informed of the library's policy. If the situation continues, the appropriate law enforcement agency will be notified. If a child is left unattended at the time of closing, and all attempts to reach the parent, guardian, or assigned caregiver have failed, the appropriate law enforcement agency will be called.

THIS POLICY WILL BE ENFORCED AT THE DISCRETION OF THE LIBRARY DIRECTOR ON BEHALF OF THE LIBRARY BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

Internet Safety and Minors at the Library

Parents, guardians, and assigned caregivers are responsible for their children at all times while visiting the library. This includes responsibility for minor children's use of the Internet. To provide for the safety of our minor patrons the Friendship Free Library uses filtering to block websites that promote the following:

- Fraud
- Tasteless and offensive materials considered inappropriate for public viewing
- Terrorism
- Spam

Computer filters cannot guarantee that all potentially objectionable material is removed or that all websites are safe. Friendship Free Library cannot guarantee that a user (minor or adult) will not get to an offensive site or will not be inadvertently exposed to one as all computers are placed in a public area. The Friendship Free Library is also not responsible for any intentional or unintentional exposure to objectionable materials and does not act as loco parentis for minors activities online while at the library. Additionally, parents, guardians, and caregivers are responsible for monitoring, supervising and deciding which Internet sites are appropriate for minors in their custody.

Parents, guardians and caregivers are responsible for all direct electronic communication (e-mail, social media, video conference calls, chat rooms or direct message service) in which minors in their custody participate.

For prints or copies of a normal, not sensitive manner, documents will be held for 4 weeks and then shredded.

Collection Development

Selection of Materials

- Materials selected for the collection are intended to offer a wide range of subjects, a choice of formats and treatments, and a varying level of complexity so that most individual library needs can be met and service given to individuals of all ages. Selection of materials for adult, young adult and juvenile materials is done from published reviews, annual lists of recommended titles, subject bibliographies, customer requests, publishers' catalogs and the considered judgment of the staff.
- In selecting materials, the contribution they make to the education of the reader, their aesthetic or inspirational value, potential demand, usability, price and needs of the community are considered. Many works important in our culture contain isolated elements to which some individuals may object. Our selection is guided by the value or impact of the entire work transcending the specific words, phrases, or incidents of which it is made.
- Selection decisions are not influenced by the possibility that material may be accessible to use by children. The responsibility for the reading, listening and viewing of library materials by children rests with their parents, legal guardians or caregivers. Selection of any material for the library's collection does not constitute an endorsement of its contents.
- All materials will be kept on open shelves except items that are in poor physical condition, are extremely rare or expensive, are subject to mutilation or are duplicates.

Maintaining the Collections

- Selection is only one aspect of collection development. Rigorous attention must be given to assessing the need for adding, replacing, repairing and discarding materials in every collection. Library staff are expected to use good judgment to remove from the collection whatever no longer serves a need, damaged and out-of-date items, materials for which there has been no use in a given period of time, and those lost by users. Replacement or substitution of these materials reintroduces the selection process.

Gifts, Memorials and Money Donations

- The Friendship Free Library is appreciative of materials offered as gifts and memorials, but it reserves the right to evaluate, keep, transfer to another library, sell or discard these materials. Materials that are duplicates of what is in the library's collection or that are not in keeping with the foregoing statements in selection of materials, may be refused, discarded, or sold. The library cannot appraise gifts for their value for tax purposes or other purposes. In the case of a money donation for a gift or memorial, the library staff will assist the donor in selecting material suitable as a gift and a memorial by use of a donation form. All gifted or memorial books will be kept on the shelves for a minimum period of ten (10) years. After ten (10) years all gifted and memorial books may be discarded at the discretion of the director.

The Friendship Free Library feels strongly that intellectual freedom, the freedom to view, the freedom to read and reach decisions independent of coercion or censorship of any kind is extremely important and the basic privilege of all the library's patrons. Censorship or parochial thinking is not appropriate to an institution dedicated to preserving free expression of ideas and the search for the truth.

Friendship Free Library Challenge to Library Materials Policy

Friendship Free Library supports all members of its community by collecting materials representing all viewpoints. However, it is not the role of the Friendship Free Library to advocate for or endorse any particular idea, opinion, or point of view; nor will the Friendship Free Library or any of its employees, volunteers, or trustees act in loco parentis (as a parent to library patron – either adult or minor).

The Board of Trustees recognizes the importance of providing a procedure whereby opinions from the public regarding materials selected can be voiced. A request for reconsideration must be made in writing on forms provided by the Friendship Free Library. These forms are available upon request from the help desk and upon completion, should be delivered to the help desk, or mailed to Friendship Free Library in care of the Library Director. Upon receipt of the signed form, the Library Director will convene a committee with the President of the Board of Trustees and two librarians not involved in the selection of the material.

Within 14 days the committee shall:

1. Examine the material in question, the issues raised and the circumstances involved.
2. Make a decision to remove or retain the material in question.
3. Notify the American Library Association (<http://www.ala.org/bbooks/online-challenge-reporting-form>) and the New York Library Association (director@nyla.org) of any challenges.

The Friendship Free Library Director will respond in writing by certified mail to the patron within 10 days of the committee’s decision.

Should the patron wish to appeal the decision, they may write to the President of the Board of Trustees to request a hearing by the Board. The Board will complete a review of the issue within 90 days and respond to the patron as soon as may be possible after such review. Any further appeal must be made to the Commissioner of Education in Albany, N. Y.
